

Choral Gold 2018

Save the Date! Saturday April 28 at Lakehead University in Orillia

Three talented clinicians facilitate one day of learning!

Calling all Singers from community choirs, church choirs, and anyone who just loves to sing.

Great venue with all meals and snacks included in your registration fee.

See short bios of the clinicians, below:

Mark Sirett is the well-known conductor, composer, pianist and organist, e founding Artistic Director of the Cantabile Choirs of Kingston. Holding a doctoral degree in choral conducting and pedagogy from the University of Iowa. Dr. Sirett has taught at the University of Alberta, University of Western Ontario and Queen's University. Dr. Sirett has been recognized numerous awards and honours. (www.marksirett.ca)

Robin Williams is a native of Bay Bulls, Newfoundland. With degrees in music performance, education, and sacred music, his doctorate is from the Pontifical Institute of Sacred Music in Rome. As well as teaching school music, Dr. Williams is artistic director of “newchoir” of Toronto.

A native of Northern Ontario, Melissa Lalonde completed her Masters in Choral Conducting at the University of Toronto. Holding A.R.C.T.s in both Piano and Voice Performance from the Royal Conservatory, Melissa has experience as a singer, a choral clinician and as a conductor. She currently teaches music at the Toronto Waldorf School.

Sponsored by the Orillia Vocal Ensemble (www.orilliavocalensemble.ca)

Contact Roy Menagh at menaghroy@gmail.com